BERRY'S BOND IS INCREASED BY THE COURT TO $2,000

Squire Bauer Increases Bond of George Berry, Held Under Serious Charge From $500 to $2000 For Appearance Before Grand Jury.

Squire Fred W. Bauer Friday morning increased the appearance bond of George Berry, under arrest on a warrant charging him with having carnal knowledge of a female under 16 years of age, from $500 to which figure he had placed it Thursday afternoon at the examining trial to $2000. Berry remains in the county jail in default of the bail for Grand Jury investigation. It is now expected that the Grand Jury will meet again on Saturday, will take up these "Dover" cases and dispose of them at that time. The cases may be docketed and come up for trial at the present term of Circuit Court.

The increasing of the bail bond four times at which it was originally placed seems to indicate that the court is more of the opinion that Berry is guilty of the charge made against him by Edith Daniels on the witness stand on Thursday. The increasing of this bond now places the bonds of both men in the case at identically the same figure.

It has developed that Will Adams, the first man implicated in this case, who was thought to have been a married man, has been divorced by his wife, the decree of divorce having been made at the last term of the Mason Circuit Court, however, this fact does not relieve him of the seriousness of the charge now against him.

Berry is a married man with children who are also married and this turn taken in the case has created much interest in the community in which the persons implicated live. Mr. Berry has always had the highest respect of the Dover community. He holds a very responsible position in the Dover Button Factory and is said to have been a good citizen highly respected by all of his neighbors. His implication in the case comes as quite a surprise to everyone.

ABERDEEN MAN ASSUMES COUNTY OFFICE

Mr. W. W. Cooper, prominent Aberdeen merchant, who was elected Treasurer of Brown county at the last election, has assumed his new duties. He will be assisted in this very important office by his son, Gus Cooper, who graduated last year from the Maysville High School.

NO FINAL PLANS FOR FAIR TO BE MADE FOR SOME TIME

Plans For Mason County Corn and Tobacco Fair Are Generally Discussed — Home Warehouse Likely to Be Location.

Because of the absence of Mr. A. L. Merz, who is chairman of the managing committee of the Mason County Corn and Tobacco Fair, there was nothing definite done at the meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce building on Thursday evening, however, general plans were discussed by those interested parties present and all are of the opinion that this year's fair will be the biggest ever for this or any other section.

Immediately upon the return from the East of Mr. Merz, definite plans will be made and in the meantime various committees will get the necessary data together. Already many applications for booths at the fair have been received and it is certain that the business men of the city and county will be well represented.

It is more than likely that the dates tentatively agreed upon will be the actual dates finally decided upon and it is also more than likely that the Home Warehouse will be the location of the fair. The chicken and stock feature of the fair this year will be one of the biggest attractions.

COMMISSIONERS HAVE BIG MEETING ON TUESDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the Mason County Commissioners on next Tuesday promises to be a very important meeting in more than one way. Besides attending to regular routine business, the Commissioners will let contracts for the re-surfacing of the Lexington and the Mt. Sterling pikes. The expense of this improvement will be paid by the State Road Department and it is hoped that this will put our model roads in first class condition for the tobacco season this winter.

GRAND JURY MEETS AGAIN ON SATURDAY

The Mason County Grand Jury had quite a busy session on Thursday and at the close of the day adjourned to meet again on Saturday when many other important matters will come up for investigation. It now looks like the Grand Jury will be in session for several days longer as they have not been able to get started well in their first day's meeting.

Mrs. Carl Colburn and little daughter, Julia, and Miss Lena Burns, of Chester street, are visiting relatives and friends in Cincinnati and Newport.

IS KILLED INSTANTLY IN QUARRY

YOUNG MURPHYSVILLE MAN KILLED IN QUARRY NEAR JUNCTION OF SARDIS AND LEXINGTON PIKES—CORONER NOW INVESTIGATING.

William Fields, aged about 29 years, of Murphysville, was killed instantly this afternoon about 3 o'clock at the quarry located near the home of Mr. Milton Dodson at the junction of the Lexington and the Sardis pikes.

Mr. Fields was employed by Billiter & Billiter, contractors who are making extensive improvements to the Sardis pike and was working in the quarry when the blast which took his life came unexpectedly. It is understood that a blast had just occurred and Mr. Fields was walking up to the spot where it had thrown out much stone, the other men in the crew following close behind him, when a second blast, which was not expected let loose. Fields was killed in an instant by being blown with stone and dirt but in some mysterious manner, the other men in the crew were not injured.

William Fields was about 29 years of age. He lived at Murphysville and was married. Besides his wife, he is survived by two small children.

Coroner T. F. Higgins was called to the quarry by telephone about 3:15 o'clock to make an investigation. At present the accident is hard to explain. It is thought, however, that a part of the expected blast failed to explode on time and that as Mr. Fields came to the scene of the explosion it let loose.

HELPED FURNISH FLAT AND THOUGHT SHE WAS TO BE BRIDE, GIRL SAYS

Cincinnati Man Married Here on Last Sunday Morning Is Sued For $10,000 Heart Balm by Woman Who Says She Was to Be His Wife.

Early Sunday morning County Clerk James Owens was called to the phone by a young man who gave him name as Elmer Hamilton and his home as Cincinnati. He said he would like to have a marriage license at once. Mr. Owens accommodated the young man and came to his office where a marriage license was granted for him to wed Miss Mary Huddleston, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Huddleston, of the Minerva neighborhood. The couple went immediately to the home of Rev. J. E. Reed in Market street where that minister married them.

Thursday in Cincinnati Miss Clara Royse, aged 25, brought suit for $10,000 against Hamilton charging him for a breach of promise. She contends that she assisted Hamilton in furnishing the beautiful little flat in Cincinnati that he and his bride now occupy. She said that she helped him select the furniture and with her own hands put the flat in condition for occupancy thinking that she was to live in it as the bride of Elmer Hamilton.

Hamilton says that though Miss Royse helped him select the furniture and prepare the flat that she is mistaken in believing she was to be his bride. "She and I were just good friends," he explains. He and his brother, he says, had planned to live in the flat and Miss Royse, being a friend of theirs, helped them make the flat what it is. Miss Royse has brought another suit in the Municipal court in Cincinnati for $400 for her work in preparing the flat.

"We were to have been married Labor Day," says Miss Royse. "Instead he introduced me to his wife and now they are occupying the home I prepared."

Hamilton, a former soldier, in retreating he was not engaged to Miss Royse says: "I offered to pay her for fixing up the flat, but she refused. It may have looked to others as if we were engaged, but we were not."

MASON PEOPLE ARE ASKED FOR $500 IN ILLITERACY DRIVE

Mason County Is Ninth in the List of Kentucky Counties—Teachers Will Conduct Moonlight Schools.

The Kentucky Illiteracy Commission has not proceeded in a haphazard way in pursuance of its object to eradicate adult illiteracy in Kentucky.

The founder of the Moonlight School movement and Chairman of the Illiteracy Commission, Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, went to Washington and secured from the Bureau of Statistics the names of the 208,084 Kentucky illiterates. It took considerable fight and put the Federal Government to the expense of over $2000 to have the list copied.

The Bureau had never before opened its records to any one, but the list is on file in the offices of the Commission at Frankfort and when the present campaign is over, it will be used to check up results and will show just who learned to read and write and who did not.

Each pupil who learns to write in these schools writes to Mrs. Stewart. Many thousands of such letters are on file at Frankfort and will be used in checking up the 1910 census list.

Every person in Mason county should contribute in some way to this campaign to teach the 1136 illiterates in Mason county to read and write.

During the recent Teachers' Institute all the County Teachers except three pledged themselves to teach the illiterates in their district.

The citizens of Mason county are asked for $500 to provide illiterates with beginners school supplies. Surely when the teachers are giving their time our good people who are not teachers will be glad to contribute to this fund to the end that the census of 1920 may show the minimum percent of illiterates in Mason county.

Mason county stands ninth in the list of 120 counties with 75 per cent illiterate. Campbell county stands first with 1.9 per cent illiterate and Leslie county last with 34.8 per cent. When the campaign is over Mason county should head the list 100 per cent able to read and write.

FARMERS ASKED TO CO-OPERATE IN REDUCING COSTS

Appeal Made to Farmers of America Through War Savings Societies to Help Reduce Living Costs.

Washington, September 3.—Active cooperation with the food administrations of the various states to reduce cost of the necessities of life and curb profiteers has been urged upon the farmers of America who are members of War Savings Societies by William Mather Lewis, director of the Savings Division of the Treasury Department.

Mr. Lewis pointed out that none is in better position to know real facts as to production and fair prices than the farm members of the 160,000 War Savings Societies in America. He declared each member owed a plain duty to cooperate with the food administrators to the utmost to establish and publish fair prices and to discover and prosecute cases of profiteering.

"Checking of waste and increase of production are peremptory necessary measures to be taken to reduce living costs," said Mr. Lewis. A veritable orgy of extravagance is going on.

"Every sound analysis of the present price situation lends confirmation to the decision of Governor W. P. C. Harding, of the Federal Reserve Board, that no solution of high living costs can be reached until the country shakes off its present spending intoxication and settles down to demanding the receipt of a dollar's worth of food or material, measured by the labor or effort required to obtain that dollar.

"One great trouble is that millions of persons are not spending from their earnings, but from their savings of the past two years.

"Liberty Bonds and other securities accumulated by the most worthy patriotic sacrifice during the war, are being cashed at a loss to purchase luxuries at prices exorbitant even for luxuries. The people have themselves to blame if prices of necessities have followed the prices of luxuries up, when merchants observed the absolute carelessness with which people parted with their money. The farmers of the country are not exempt from this extravagance. We read without particular surprise, because of numerous similar instances, of a farmer buying out the entire stock of expensive haberdashery in the store where he was previously accustomed to drive hard bargains for necessities.

"It is absolutely necessary, as Governor Harding has pointed out, to work regularly and efficiently in order to produce and distribute the largest possible volume of commodities and to exercise reasonable economies in order that money, goods and services may be devoted primarily to the liquidation of debt and to the satisfaction of the demand for necessities, rather than indulgence of desires for luxuries.

"Enrolled in the Savings societies are more than six million people, close to the very heart of American industrial life. It is in their power to increase the flow of production through the arteries of industry. It is in their power to check waste not only amongst themselves and those dependent on them but amongst all in the communities in which they live.

"They can do this by wise buying and by treating what they buy with respect due to the hours of labor its purchase cost them. It lies in their power through regular and consistent saving and safe and conservative investment in such securities as War Savings Stamps and Savings Certificates, to add to the capital necessary for industrial expansion and increased production.

"The chief complaint of the nation on the high cost of living is directed at the cost of food to the consumer, middle men who are accused of profiteering can be made to lower prices most effectively if great quantities of food are produced. It is the duty of every farmer to make his farm produce all it can—and to exercise moderation in buying luxuries, and above all to save consistently and invest his savings wisely."

"The Savings Division of the Treasury Department appeals to the Savings Societies and their members to re-analyze this campaign. They can show the people of America where, how, when and what to buy. They can teach how and when to save. They can assure a larger part of our national effort to production of necessities. They can aid to bring about increased employment and can prevent the lowering of the general standard of living of America. In so doing, they will perform a patriotic service to themselves, their industries, their communities and the nation."

After repeatedly refusing the requests of the public that he do so, and after informing Congress that he was not willing to do so, Secretary Baker has been compelled by a Republican Congress to disgorge the immense army stores of food and clothing and sell them in order to help the people meet the problem of the high cost of living. Mr. Baker is now lending the impression that he is entirely enthusiastic and was in favor of the sale even before anyone else thought about it.

PART V.

"While she was there, another strange thing happened. I saw the Garden Witch. She was a little old woman, but not old either. She had the pinkest cheeks! I could see their glow in the white light, but her hair was silvery. Her eyes were deep—dark. I don't know whether they were dark blue, or green, or black, but they made me think of all three. She wore an undershirt of some shiny, dark, softest brown stuff, and a wide overskirt of all sorts of mingled flowers and fruits and leafy, viney things. She had on a hat with a wide brim with flowers all pictured on it. I seemed to know all about these things from old, odd memories in my garden-head. And I saw some of these flowers afterwards as they bloomed in the Golden Girl's garden. 'Ts she walked, she leaned on a long staff which was carved all over with vines and grapes. She seemed not at all to need this staff, for though she leaned on it like a little old lady, she just skipped over the ground as lightly as a leaf."

"She went to bed where the beetles were, tapped briskly with her staff and leaned to listen. 'Who's below?' she said in a voice like the gurgle of raindrops. 'Beets,' came the chirpy voices. 'One inch deep. Three rows, 15 inches apart. We're sorta close in the row.' 'Good,' said the old lady. 'You shall be thinned, my dears, when you come up. Four inches apart will give you room to breathe.'"

"Then she tapped on the onion plot. 'Who's below?' she gurgled. 'Onions, grandmother, onion sets. Three-fourths of an inch below. Three inches apart, grandmother, three rows. Two feet between rows with lettuce between.'"

"Aha! very good. I see ye, my dears. Grow strong in the dew and sun."

"Then the pale crisp little voices of lettuce piped up. 'Godmother! We're here. Half an inch deep. Three rows, in between the onion rows. Two feet between rows of us!'"

"'Good!' said the Garden Witch. 'Come up to the light. Ye shall have more room. Ye shall be thinned to 5 inches apart. That will give ye room to spread your green dresses, my pretties. Hah-hah!'"

"Then she came to the radishes. 'Who's below?' she cried. 'Radishes! Oh! radishes!' they said, 'radishes; we're pretty close. We can hardly to come up. Half an inch deep. Three rows. Twelve inches between rows!'"

"'You shall be thinned, my pretties, to give room for your fat rosy bodies. You shall be thinned to 3 inches apart!'"

"They laughed, a chorus of rosy little laughter muffled by the earth. I must have gone off to the deep sleep then, for the next I remember was that a rosy light shone over the garden where the sun came up behind the Apple Tree. Over the garden the rows showed tiny green banners and bayonets. The companies were beginning to come over the top. Each night or so, the Garden Witch came. Each night she called to the companies in the trenches. Each day or so, new lines of bayonets and banners came over the top.

"One night it was peace. 'Who's there?' 'Peas, Grandmother! Our trenches are 4 inches deep, Grandmother. Three inches of earth are over our heads, 3 feet between the rows, Grandmother. Three inches apart are we.'"

"Come up bravely,' said the Garden Witch. 'We'll fill up the trenches as fast as you grow. You shall have brush to grow on, too. You shall climb and spread out your pretty green wings and your fly-away blossoms, my dainty pets.'"

WOMAN SUFFERED 12 YEARS

Finally Made Well by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Emmitsburg, Md.—"I suffered for twelve or fifteen years, and was treated by a physician, but got little relief. I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my newspaper, so I thought I would try it, and it did me more good than all the doctor's medicine. I am a farmer's wife and do my housework all the time, and I am better now than I have been for years. I am never without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house and have recommended it to several of my friends. You are perfectly welcome to publish my letter for the good it may do other women."—Mrs. ETTIE WARREN, Emmitsburg, Md.

Backache and nervousness are symptoms of nature's warnings, which indicate a functional disturbance or an unhealthy condition which often develops into a more serious ailment. Women in this condition should not continue to drag along without help, but profit by Mrs. Warren's experience, and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

CAMPAIGN EXTENDED INTO CUBA

The campaign of the Roosevelt Memorial Association to raise $5,000,000 for permanent memorials to the late Theodore Roosevelt has been extended beyond the United States. William Boyce Thompson, president of the Association, announced yesterday that Frank Steinhart, president of the Havana Railways, has accepted the campaign chairmanship for Cuba, and that Colonel Chester Harding, Governor General of the Canal Zone, will be in charge of the campaign at the Panama Canal.

In Hawaii a vigorous campaign will also be carried on. Mason F. Prosser, of Honolulu, will be the chairman of the Hawaiian committee. In Alaska the Roosevelt Memorial campaign has been entrusted to the guidance of Geo. C. Hazlett, of Cordova, who has just sent in his acceptance of the chairmanship. Each of these men report intense interest in the coming campaign, which starts October 20th and ends on October 27th.

ESCHEAT SUITS DISMISSED; FAR-REACHING PRECEDENT

Whitesburg, Ky.—Judge Childers, in the Letcher county circuit court, ordered all escheat suits recently brought in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky against certain corporations holding coal and timber lands in Letcher county dismissed for the want of sufficient legal authority on the part of the attorneys who brought the suits.

A large number of similar suits have been instituted by the same attorneys in practically every county in Eastern and Northern Kentucky.

Theodore B. Blaney, of Beattyville, and Clayton B. Blaney, of Louisville, were the attorneys.

ville, claimed the authority to bring the suits was conferred by a contract entered into with Governor A. O. Stanley, upon the recommendation of Attorney General Charles H. Morris. The Letcher county circuit court in its decision has adjudged this contract unwarranted and insufficient, the opinion of the court being that no such emergency as the statutes contemplate in employing private attorneys to assist the Attorney General exists.

WORDS FROM HOME

Statements That May Be Investigated.

Testimony of Maysville Citizens. When a Maysville citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Maysville resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

George H. King, prop., grocery 615 E. Second St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Chanslor's Drug Store and I have been greatly benefited by them. Sometimes the kidney secretions have been irregular in passage. I have suffered severely with aches through the small of my back. When I have been in that way, I have used a box or two of Doan's Kidney Pills. They have never failed to cure the attack in quick order."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. King had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

LOCAL MAN GETS LEWIS COUNTY CONTRACT

The Vaneeburg Sun says: Fiscal Court met in special session Saturday p. m. for the purpose of receiving bids for the remodeling of the wooden bridges across Salt Lick creek at Vanlee. Louis Bauer of Maysville submitted three propositions with specifications and drawings and price for each kind of job offered. After some discussion it was voted to accept his bid of $1,500 for rebuilding and making a covered bridge, the sides to be boarded and the roof to be of Red wood shingles—all material to be of good quality.

COUNTY SCHOOLS WILL OPEN NEXT MONDAY

County Superintendent Turnipseed announces that everything is now ready for the opening of the county schools on next Monday except that some of the school books selected by the School Book Commission only a few months ago are not yet in the hands of the dealers. DROUTH PLAYS HAVOC WITH ALL KENTUCKY CROPS REPORT SAYS

Kentucky State Crop Report Shows Great Damage Done By Dry Weather.

The State Crop Report issued by State Commissioner of Agriculture Mat. S. Cohen as of September 4th, follows:

The drouth has cut down crop conditions generally. Corn, however, made an improvement in August and the general condition shows at 85 per cent., which is better than last month's report indicated. Corn yield per acre as estimated under present conditions will be 23 bushels as a State average, which would give something over 77,000,000 bushels production from the State this year. By sections the average yield runs from 16 to 32 bushels, according to the locality which has had the most seasonable weather conditions.

Condition of burley tobacco is given at 70 per cent., which is not so good as last month's report, and dark tobacco is given at 77 per cent. The tobacco crop is very uneven, and the outlook is discouraging. Much tobacco is being cut early, owing to the extreme dry conditions prevailing.

Less than 42 per cent acreage of hemp is given, while condition is 78 per cent. This will mean an exceptionally small output. Cow peas acreage is 76 per cent. of the normal crop, and condition is 79 per cent. Reasons given for so small an acreage are the extreme dry weather and high cost of seed. Soy bean acreage is 84 per cent. and condition 81.

Garden conditions are exceptionally low, the same being given at 69 per cent. Potato condition is given at 69 per cent., and sweet potatoes at 80 per cent.

The fruit crop is short. Apple condition is given at 52 per cent., grapes at 66 per cent. of the normal crop, and melons at 72 per cent. Buckwheat acreage is reported as 50 per cent. short. The July seeding is much better than the August seeding to date. Alfalfa condition is given at 74 per cent., while the yield of the third cutting is estimated as a State average at slightly over one ton per acre.

Pastures are burnt up in many localities, and are given at 73 per cent. as a whole. Stock water is scarce, though condition of stock is fairly good, ranging as follows: Horses 92, cattle 91, hogs 90, sheep 90.

In most localities there is as much stock on hand as last year, especially horses and cattle. Only localities report more hogs and sheep on hand than last year. Poultry conditions are 73 per cent.

Taken as a whole the crop outlook is not very favorable at this time, and it is to be hoped that October 1, will show a real improvement.

PROHIBITION AND SUFFRAGE ENDORSED BY THE DEMOCRATS

Kentucky Democrats Adopt Platform at Louisville Convention on Thursday Evening.

Louisville, Ky., September 4.—The Democratic State Platform Convention at Louisville Thursday was a great meeting and all dissensions were seemingly brought together.

The meeting was called to order by Judge Charles A. Hardin, Chairman of the State Executive Committee. Congressman Allen W. Barkley was elected Temporary Chairman and Judge John D. Carroll was made permanent chairman.

Hon. T. D. Slattery, of Maysville, was chosen as the Ninth District's representative on the Committee on Organization.

The Democratic platform adopted late tonight, is divided into 18 parts.

Section I. declares for "continued devotion to the teachings of Democracy, formulated and indorsed by the best thought of the past." It commands "without reserve, the administration of Woodrow Wilson," eulogizes him for his leadership, statesmanship and diplomacy; "unreservedly" indorses the League of Nations.

Section II. declares "for American and American civilization and institutions" and against Bolshevism.

Section III. favors "suitable provision to memorialize the dead, furnish comfort for disabled and provide means of employment to all soldiers, sailors and marines in need thereof."

Section IV. asserts that "enrichment of the platform promises made by the convention of 1915" have been fulfilled by enactment of appropriate legislation; "heartily indorses and commends" the Democratic party and its administration for the faithful performance of the pledges contained in that platform.

Section V. declares for an educational program that will bring an increase in salaries for teachers; the formation of a nonpartisan text book commission; a survey of the whole educational system in Kentucky; the continuance of efforts to eradicate illiteracy from the state; to increase the efficiency and extend the influence of the state normal schools and the state university.

Section VI. declares for establishment of a department of labor.

Section VII. declares that the Democratic party in Kentucky "stands committed to the principle of classification of property for purposes of taxation," and commits the party to a "careful revision of the present tax law," and "a gradual decrease of the tax rate upon real estate," that "ultimately real estate shall pay no state tax except its share in maintaining the schools and public highways of the state."

Section VIII. declares for better roads.

Section IX. favors "legislation to develop and protect the livestock industry, conserve the fertility of the soil, provide better marketing facilities and encourage better and more scientific farming."

Section X. condemns "profiteering and pledges" the enactment of laws to prevent combines and control of prices of the necessities of life.

Section XI. favors the selection of the Board of Control of public charitable, eleemosynary and penal institutions without regard to political affiliation.

Section XII. favors the adoption of a constitutional amendment intended to suppress mob violence.

Section XIII. "Commends the action of the Kentucky General Assembly during its 1818 session, in ratifying the amendment to the Federal Constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as beverages, and its further action in submitting to the public in Kentucky an amendment to the state constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes," and pledges the Democratic Party to "the passage of all laws necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of both of said amendments."

Section XIV. declares "in favor of a state primary election law," and says "by it, every voter has the right to participate by his ballot in the selection of nominees for office, whether in state, district or other sub-division of the state, and we are opposed unalterably to its repeal."

Section XV. is the "woman suffrage" plank and reads: "Believing, as we do, in the justice of extending to women the right of suffrage on equal terms with man, we favor the ratification by the Legislature of Kentucky, at its next session, of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, extending to women this right of suffrage, and we urge our representatives in the Legislature of Kentucky and all executive or other officers to use their votes and influence in every legitimate way to bring about the ratification of same."

"We pledge our party to support in

LOCKS GIRL IN BANK VAULT

Henderson, Ky., September 5.—Auntie, who entered the Deposits Bank at Smith Mills, Ky., yesterday and held up Miss Margaret Lilly, clerk.

Rev. Briscoe, who entered the bank shortly after, released the girl, who almost was suffocated.

The robber escaped with $4000.

MANY ATTEND BLUE GRASS FAIR

Quite a number of people from this section of the state are attending the Blue Grass Fair at Lexington this week. The fair is a very high class one and the races are especially attractive to Kentuckians.

Danville, Ky.—Miss Lydia Anderson will leave this week for San Marcos, Texas, where she has been chosen to fill the position as director of art at San Marcos Academy, Conservatory of Music and Fine Arts.

Mr. Richard Spaniard of the Spaniard Piano Company returned to this city today after spending several weeks in West Virginia looking after his interest there.

The next General Assembly, if the Federal amendment has not become operative by that time, the submission to the voters of an amendment to the State Constitution granting suffrage to women on the same terms as to men, and when the amendment is submitted, to support it at the polls as a party principle.

Section XVI. asks for "state aid to all local health work, including especially institutions for the cure and prevention of tuberculosis."

Section XVII. favors a productive tax on oil, gas and royalties in lieu of all taxes on leases when actual development is being had."

Section XVIII. pledges the party to economy in the government of the state.
